

Simple future Tense

---

What Simple Future Tense?

Definition of Simple Future Tense with Examples: Any Activity which happens after our present action i.e. even a second later from the point of talking till 'n' no. of years.

Examples:

1. I shall be twenty One Next Month.
2. It will be Christmas in a week.
3. We Will See our Exam results at the end of July.

When do we use the Simple Future tense?

- To express the intention of doing an action in the near future and to express hidden pressure.
- Shall is used for "I" and "We". with the rest of the subjects 'Will' is used to express future activity.
- But, to refer to something which is sure to take place, we use 'will' with 'I'. "We" and "Shall" with rest of the Subjects like he, she, it, this, any name.
- 'Will' expresses promise, willingness, enthusiasm, threat, Determination & a hundred percent Surely.
- 'Shall' Expresses Command, Force, Authority, When it is used with the pronoun he, she, you, it, they, name.
- 'Will' is commonly used Nowadays instead of shall.

Formation of Simple Future Tense

It's is an Easy Formation of Simple Future Tense. It helps readers to know about What Simple future Tense Form is.

+	I	Will/Shall		Play	Cricket.
+	You	Will/Shall		do	the Busin ess.
-	He, she, it (Singu lar)	Will/Shall	Not	Come	today.
-	We, they (Plural )	Will/Shall	Not	talk	to her.
?	Will/Shall	He, She, it		Know	About Your Feelin gs.
-?	Won't	they		Cook	New Dishe s.

Types of Simple Future Tenses with Structure.

(+) How To Make Simple Future Tense (Affirmative)

Structure: Subject+ Will/Shall+V1+ Object.

Examples of Simple Future:

1. The Class will start on Thursday.
2. Virat will play Excellent today.
3. Raveena shall do the late-night work.
4. The Butter will melt after some time.
5. Trump will go to Spain.

(-) Simple Future tense Negative Sentences

Structure: Subject+ Will/Shall+ Not+ V1+ Object.

Examples of Simple Future Negative:

1. They will not lend the money.
2. My Friend will not prepare the food today.
3. In Spoken English 'will not' is spoken as Won't. For Example
4. She won't meet you tonight.
5. My Friends won't arrange their things.

(?) For Making Questions, Use Helping verbs in the beginning,

Structure: Will/Shall+ Subject+ V1+ Object.

Examples of Interrogative Future Sentences :

1. Will you plan to go to a party?
2. Will he Dance at the Sports Day Function?
3. Will they play the Cricket match today?
4. Will She attend the online Class?
5. Will We make new friends in college?

(-?) For Simple Future Negative Questions use won't at the beginning for spoken English.

Structure: Won't+ Subject+ V1+ Object.

Examples of Negative Interrogative Future Sentences :

1. Won't She agree to your proposal?
2. Won't they tell the truth?
3. Won't the child fall from the Stairs?
4. Won't he go to Mumbai tomorrow?
5. Won't the teacher check student's project work?

Simple Future Wh-Family Question Making?

Structure: Wh-Family + Will/shall+ Subject+ V1+ Object.

For Examples:

1. How will we learn English Simple Future tense with Examples?
2. When will we leave for Delhi?

3. What will you do after reaching Mumbai?
4. Whom Will, you meet on Sunday?
5. Where will Rina go tomorrow with Virat Friends?

For Future Actions

We use 'Will' as well as 'going to'.

Will

We use 'will' When we decide to do Something at the time of speaking which the speaker has not decided before.

Going To

We use (be) 'going to' for preplanned actions, i.e, actions which we have already decided to do.

